

DANGEROUS WILD ANIMALS ACT 1976

GENERAL LICENCE CONDITIONS

The following conditions are laid down within the act and are provided for the applicant's information. A full schedule of conditions, including any that might be laid down by the London Borough of Hounslow, will be provided should a license be granted.

1. Any animal concerned will at all times of its being kept under the authority of the licence-
 - Be held in accommodation which secures that the animal will not escape, which is suitable as regards construction, size, temperature, lighting, ventilation, drainage and cleanliness and which is suitable for the number of animals proposed to be held in the accommodation, and
 - Be supplied with adequate and suitable food, drink and bedding material and be visited at suitable intervals.
2. Appropriate steps will at all times be taken for the protection of any animal concerned in case of fire or other emergency.
3. All reasonable precautions will be taken at all times to prevent and control the spread of infectious diseases.
4. While any animal concerned is at the premises where it will normally be held, its accommodation is such that it can take adequate exercise.
5. While any animal concerned is being kept only under the authority of the licence,-
 - The animal shall be kept by no person other than such person or persons as is or are specified (whether by name or description) in the licence;
 - The animal shall normally be held at such premises as are specified in the licence;
 - The animal shall not be moved from those premises or shall only be moved from them in such circumstances as are specified in the licence (an example would be for veterinary treatment); and
 - The person to whom the licence is granted shall hold a current insurance policy (which is satisfactory to the local authority), which insures him and any other person entitled to keep the animal under the authority of the licence against liability for any damage, which may be caused by the animal.
6. The person to whom the licence is granted shall at all reasonable times make available a copy of the licence to any person entitled to keep any animal under the authority of the licence.
